

CATHOLIC CONCERN FOR ANIMALS (CCA)

Founded in 1929

Publication: The Ark

CCA continues God's compassion and mercy as shown in Scripture and by many of our Saints!

St. Francis of Assisi
Friend of all wild animals

St. Brendan, the Navigator
Created the first bird sanctuary

St. Martin de Porres
Created the first animal hospital in the Americas

St. Columba of Iona
Befriended the weary crane

St. Godric of Finchale
Set trapped animals free

St. Eustace of Tivoli
Saw the crucifix in the horns of the hunted stag

St. Basile of Rheims
Set up a sanctuary for wild animals

St. Blaise of Armenia
Healer of sick and injured animals

Dr. Holly Roberts' book, Vegetarian Christian Saints describes the lives and minds of 150 Saints (some mentioned above) who lived Godly lives by refusing to eat animals.

CCA-USA also helps people care for God's creatures with our new Veterinary Charity Fund. Churches and schools can raise money for this important fund!

"Christian Concern For All God's Creatures" features CCA and can be seen online!
