

Stop Animal Exploitation NOW! Victories & Highlights

- SAEN news conferences have exposed abusive conditions within the laboratories of Michigan State University, University of Toledo, University of Pennsylvania, and other well-known laboratories. Substantial government fines were levied against several labs and one experiment ended after our campaign.
- SAEN investigations have uncovered and exposed major abuses within primate labs at Harvard and University of Wisconsin (Madison).
- SAEN has taken on the abusive animal testing of the Procter & Gamble Corporation, meeting with company officials, supporting anti-P&G rallies, and placing articles in important media outlets.
- SAEN staff filed the largest Official Complaint in history with the United States Department of Agriculture, exposing abuses of primates at nationally-known laboratories from coast to coast, including: UCLA, UCSF, The Salk Institute, University of Washington (Seattle), Princeton, Yale, University of Michigan, Northwestern, Washington University (MO), Emory, University of Florida, Wake Forest, University of North Carolina (Chapel Hill), Vanderbilt, and many other labs.
- SAEN released a national report, The Animal Experimentation Scandal, on animal experimentation revealing annual expenditures by the National Institutes of Health of over $10 billion on animal experiments.
- SAEN released another national report, The Primate Experimentation Scandal, exposing annual government funding of primate experiments exceeding $650 million while over 100,000 primates are imprisoned in labs and breeding facilities.
- SAEN (with the help of local activists) ended the sale of former pets to labs in Nashville.
- SAEN exposed abuses within the Primate Research Center system which annually wastes over $245 million while imprisoning over 25,000 chimpanzees, rhesus monkeys, squirrel monkeys, lemurs, cotton-top tamarins, and primates of many other species.
- SAEN has exposed multiple instances of nationally known labs (i.e. Harvard, Oregon Health Sciences University, University of Washington, Tulane, and Yale) lying to the USDA.

- SAEN exposed the publication of a fraudulent national report on animal experimentation by the USDA and provided evidence of the fraud to the chairs of the House & Senate Agriculture Committees.
